

The Ninety Percent Success Rule

I talk a lot about the 90% rule, you know, 90% of success is mental.

But what the heck does that really mean anyway?

Well, simply put, your thoughts control your emotions, and your emotions control your actions which create the happy little results you see everyday in your life.

That is the process of manifestation (Principle 5 in the BANABU master manual) and it is how everything gets created.

It really is the building blocks of the Universe.

But even as powerful as this principle is, it is incomplete.

There is still that very critical 10%. The physical or mechanical element of success that you MUST have in order to complete the circuit.

The 90% or the correct mind set is crucial for your success but it is as good as worthless without a way to express it.

Just like all of your feelings and emotions may as well be nonexistent without your body to give and receive them, if you don't have a vehicle to put the engine in, it is pointless to have a fine tuned tight engine.

My "assignment" in life is to help you develop that 90% and make you aware of the 10%.

I have a unique and special ability to explain and teach complicated principles in a way that you can understand and actually get some real life changing value from them.

But I am not a business whiz or some human machine that can drop out successful money making system after system.

I am not the best person to develop the money-making mechanics that create your next multi million dollar business.

That's why I have a few people I rely on that I trust (literally with my life) to handle that part for me.

If you have been with BANABU for any amount of time you know that I only teach things from what I have actually experienced that work.

I have experienced A LOT of things and, well, quite frankly, most did not work for me.

So I don't use, teach, or recommend them to anyone.

I have people asking me to recommend their products to you every day, literally hundreds of them.

How many of those have you seen?

This is only the second time I have EVER recommended a product to you. (The first was for ADD with Tellman Knudson because his techniques helped my daughter in school).

Now BANABU is on a 90 day financial frenzy so it is my obligation to recommend what worked for me. (In fact if you look at the picture in the 11 Principle Master manual you will see the NPOD product right in front!)

I have not been able to find anything better to fill the 10% part of the equation than NPOD and I have NEVER (and I say this humbly) experienced a better coach or teacher to guide you to a higher income than Joshua Shafran.

I want this program in your hands because I know (from first hand experience) what it can do for you).

And I will be sweetening the deal with a special unadvertised bonus for everyone that gets the NPOD system through the special link Joshua set up for BANABU members only!

I'm not going to tell you what it is yet, but I will tell you it is only for the select BANABU members who purchase NPOD through this special link.

<http://www.banabu.com/npod>

I am not going to try to enhance or improve NPOD because I really don't think it can be improved at all.

Or I am not going to try to bonus you to death with worthless stuff that has no real value just to make "the sale".

That is not what I am about.

BANABU is about creating real results in your life and I only participate in activities that have the fullest potential to do just that, create results.

Think of this surprise bonus as something that compliments NPOD and something that NPOD compliments.

Kind of like the bread the peanut butter goes on.

Your going to love it!

So if you have been looking for a way to realistically make more money in your life then now is the time.

This powerful combination may never be available again after this deal is off.

I used it, and the people that helped me launch BANABU used it, and $50 million dollars worth of other people have used it too.

All I know for sure is if you are waiting for me to teach you what Joshua is going to teach you in his NPOD course, you will be waiting for a very, very, very, long time.

To your ever expanding success,

P.S. There has been a massive response from the last email. I am super excited to see how much new income is generated from this and the best part is it only grows! Make it one of your objectives to let me know the gains you see too!
